Early Dealings Characterized by Earnings Show a Large Business.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 .- The stock man

Foreign houses sold quite heavily on Northern Pacific common and, ia consequence, that stock was somewhat depressed in the earlier dealings, but it suisequently resumed its recently conspicuous large volume, and conjectures regarding the explanations of its course were ac-tive. It is the common opinion that the management has reached the conclusion ings of the company showed that not with-standing the shoringe in the spring wheat crop, the road, in September, carned in gross only $186,000 less than in the same features of the railway list were Southern Pacific, Southern Railway preferred, Union Pacific, the granger stocks, and the Atchison shares. The dealings in the Industrial quarter and among the specialties resulted in irregular charges. Sugar Refning American lar changes. Sugar Refining, American Smelting, and Tennessee Coal and Iron were strong, while the steel industrials generally were depressed, although they participated in the afternoon recovery.

A number of interesting September statements of earnings submitted today show that the industry of transportation is being maintained in exceptionally large volume, and that the returns suffer but little even in comparison with those of last year. Evidences of reviving interest were apparent in the local traction shares, all of which advanced, with fairly large dealings appearing in Manhattan and Brooklyn Rapil Transit.

A feature in the dealings was the bettering demand for securities of an investment grade, although buying of this char-acter can hardly be looked for in volume until after the election. Of news bearing upen particular stocks, the most important was, perhaps, the announcement of the transfer of the control of the Kansas City Southern property from speculative ownership to quarters where the property will not be a menace to the whole railway situation in the Southwest.

The money market was easy throughout the day, and sterling exchange remained steady at yesterday's levels.

Predictions made last week that a turn for the better would occur in the stock market yesterday were fulfilled very satisfactorily. During the morning there was a dull market and a tendency toward a lower level, but at 1 o'clock an improvement began which made things look much more bullish before the close. Business had increased largely and prices had ad-vanced handsomely. It is not well to attach too much importance to this better-ment. As I as been said, prices should advance this week because the profession-als will force them up if it is possible to show their "confidence" in McKinley's election. But it is not in the least likely that they will care to do more than is necessary in this regard. A rather dull mar-ket ir expected by some of the best judges of the situation, and prices advancing but not rapidly. The recession that is certain to come at election time, say on Monday or on Wednesday, probably the latter day, is not expected to be a very severe one. There be selling by the professionals, but buying for investment and for the pools at the lower prices will be good, too. This will be the programme, no matter which side wins in the election, according to the most conservative predictions. At to the future market, the great prosperity of the railways and the industrial trusts will ensure good buying of their securities in the coming six months and prices far above any level since the Spanish

News yesterday was nearly all excellent. Money was easy. London hesitated somewhat in its buying on account of a rumor that Queen Victoria was iii, but on the balance was a buyer of stocks. The earn ings sentements, with few exceptions, were all that had been expected and more. Both gross and net earnings continue to increase and there is the best of evidence that the year will end as it began, with record-breaking figures. The census figures for the country are bullish. There are now thirteen million more people to feed and clothe and to house and three million more men to work than there were ten years ago. But this additional market for Amer ican goods is as nothing compared with the immense growth in the exports of the country in new outside markets in the Southern Pacific was one of the mosactive and buoyant stocks on the list yes-terday afternoon. The strength in this stock, in fact, started the upward move-ment in other parts of the list. The opening price was 361-8 and the low 357-8. From the latter price the stock advanced to 28 1-2 and the close was at 38 1-8, with a full two points net gain. As is usually the case when such movements occur, no More Animation in the Market street. The "tips" always appear when a suggestion of it had been put out in the toward the end. The company is earning money in a satisfor foreign account amounted, on balance, factory way, however, and has a bright future as far as all the probabilities reach.

Yesterday's boom was a manipulated one purely and simply, but it is of such booms, caused by manipulation, that an upward movement is made.

There was rather heavy selling of Union position in respect of strength and a - portion at one time, but the support was good, and before the close the stock had got back to its opening quotation 611-2. Northern Pacific and Mis-souri Pacific were both inclined to advance during the afternoon, and Missouri Pacific management has reached the conclusion that the stock can safely be established upon a 4 per cent basis, and that the annouacement to that effect will be mad in Pecember, when the dividend on the common stock is ordinarily acted upon.

It is of such big net earnings that dividends are paid and it is on divi-dends that the ultimate prices of securities are always founded.

The statement of the Jersey Central for September was the only poor one published yesterday. There was a decrease in net earnings for the month of $123,-630. The decrease undoubtedly reflects temporary loss of the company on acccunt of the strike. It will be made up this month and next in all probability.

Jersey Central was not traded in yesterday. Reading first preferred was qu'et, but it held its own.

The Steel and Wire people have elected P. A. B. Widener a director. The steel and iron securities were fairly s rong yesterday afternoon despite the closing down of some of the Federal Steel Company's mills. Apparently a pool support was responsible for their strength. as the public as usual is failing to buy them at their present low prices. The public in this case fears the effect of Mr. B.y-an's election on the group. It is a safe an's election on the group. It is a safe supposition that the effect of this event would be much less than the public locked for, because these stocks are already solling at very low prices. In a short time an upward movement would begin. On the other hand, if Mr. McKinley is to be elected there is a very good probability that they would boom. That is why the insiders are absorbing these stocks now.

The New York traction securities ad vanced well, Brooklyn Rapid Transit making a point net gain and Metrepoli-tan even more than that Sentiment re-garding these securities is still builish.

Sugar, Tobacco, and People's Gas were all fairly strong, the first of the group at one time showing something approaching to its normal activity. Nothing in the news concerned any of them, except the decision of the Toledo courts that the Arbuckles have a right to see the books of the American Sugar Refinery's. books of the American Sugar Refinery's Woolson Spice Company. This decision did not seem to have any had effect on the holders of Sugar stock.

Do not prophesy what is going to happen, for we do not know, nor do we pretend to. If we KNEW of some big stock movement, that was about to take place, do you suppose we would give it away, or sell it for 85 a week? "Not in a thousand years;" we would use it to make money for ourselves, and SO WOULD ANYBODY. The takirs that pretend to know, will, of course, make a guess and charge you 85 a week (or more), but they have nothing to lose and they may get some of your money.

"State Only Facts"

Is our motto, so our market letters give the history of the market from day to day, besides chronicling the Goseip (market news) as we hear it. In other words, we want you to have all possible information to enable you to form your own opinion; an epinion formed in this way is lively to be intelligent. Then if you give us your orders we will give you fast service in executing same. Send us a trial order to any of our branch offices or correspondents; we guarantee satisfaction. Our free book explains margin trading. Write for our daily letter.
